Club Members Inspired By American Home Day

Five Hundred Attend All-Day Meeting of Woman's Club. Red Cross Serves Luncheon. Dr. Walton Cole Afternoon Speaker.

American Home Day at the Arlington Woman's Club, held in two sessions last Thursday with luncheon, was an inspirational day to approximately five hundred women. Mrs. Stanley R. Kingman, president of the club, welcomed the guests and members and called attention to the exhibits.

In decorating the stage, Mrs. LeRoy Shaw, chairman of the Art Committee, used the title of a lecture, "The Ramparts We Watched", given at Swampscott last June as her motive. The theme was particularly well worked out.

Mrs. Kingman introduced all club members to each other, saying, "Belonging to the club makes us all friends". She then presented Mrs. Frederick A. Bowen, chairman of the American Home Committee, in charge of the day's program.

Mrs. Bowen introduced the guests of the club, Mrs. Charles C. Kolster, Seventh District chairman; Mrs. William P. LaRette, State American Home chairman, and Mrs. Edward H. Averill, Clerk of the State Federation and Adviser to the American Home Department for the State. Each spoke specifically of her phase of the Federation activities. Mrs. Kolster spoke of the War Fund Drive, announced the Federation's meeting coming on February 24th.

The morning event was Avant of whom it is said "She has been designing chapeaux for half the heads of Hollywood." If half the heads of Arlington are not crowned at least with her ideas, if not her chapeaux, it is not the fault of the Woman's Club.

That the Red Cross will serve hot coffee graciously and with a smile in case of an emergency was exemplified for these ladies attired in their blue uniforms and cape and carrying blue baskets, dispensed their food in a most delightful and efficient manner. OVER $100,000 WAR BONDS SOLD IN FIRST FOUR DAYS

Short Step on Way to the $3,000,000 Goal.

With well over $100,000 in War Bonds sold here during the first four days of the Fourth War Loan drive, Arlington entered the second week of the campaign still a long way from its goal which has been set at three million dollars.

Of this amount, Arlingtonians are expected to buy at least $400,000 worth of Series E Bonds. Figures released by F. W. Denio, State chairman of the War Finance Committee on Saturday, showed that Arlington had bought $61,000 worth of Series E Bonds up to that time. One of the main objectives of the Fourth War Loan drive is to see that every wage earner, in a position to do so, buys at least one of the Series E Bonds. In this way, the government hopes that money which would ordinarily be spent on luxuries—thereby encouraging inflation—will be invested in War Bonds to buy necessary war weapons.

Organizations, school children, insurance company employees and volunteer solicitors are combining their efforts to put Arlington "over the top" before the close of the campaign on February 15.

Schools Get Off To Flying Start

Arlington schools got off to a flying start last week in their campaign to buy airplanes in the War Fund drive, each school hoping to have an airplane named for it.

A total of $10,840 worth of bonds was purchased. Honors for the highest purchases went to the Parmenter School, where sales amounted to $2,237.50. Miss Evans' sixth grade led with $1,068.75 purchased, and Miss Barrett's fifth grade was close behind with a total of $925.

The Russell School sold over $1,500 worth. The children are not only asking their parents to invest but are visiting neighbor families and asking them to buy through the schools.

Two Groups Leave For Fort Devens

Two groups of men left Arlington this week for Fort Devens, a group from Draft Board Five on Tuesday morning and one from Four yesterday morning. Both groups were given the customary send-off by friends and relatives, with coffee and doughnuts served by a Woman's Club committee headed by Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield, members of the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Salvation Army and the Ministers' Association present to wish them Godspeed and to give them packages of chewing gum and candy to cheer them on their way.

The men leaving Tuesday with Joseph L. Beasley of 8 River street, as acting corporal, were:

Fewer Delinquency Cases This Year than Last Says Chief Archie Bullock

Speaking at Opening of Arlington Boys' Club. Home Front Must Not "Drop the Ball", Bill Cunningham Tells the Audience.

There were seventy fewer cases of juvenile delinquency in Arlington this year than last, Police Chief Archie F. Bullock told the audience that gathered last Sunday afternoon in the Middlesex Sportsman's Association clubhouse for the formal opening of the Arlington Boys' Club new home.

Chief Bullock, who was the club's first president, outlined the growth and development of the club from the day in the fall of 1937 when a group of citizens, interested in combating the increasing juvenile delinquency, met and laid plans for a club to provide supervised leisure time activities for boys and young men. On April 28, 1938, the club was formally launched with quarters at 4 Swan place and an executive director in charge.

Thomas F. Scanlan, chairman of the Dedication Committee, presided. Miss Ruth Olive opened the program by singing "America the Beautiful" and later sang "God Bless America". The invocation was given by Rev. Matthew J. Flaherty, Ph.D., pastor of St. Agnes' Church.

Robert L. Moore, president of the Boys' Club for the past four years, welcomed the audience and expressed the hope that they would continue their interest in the club. He gave credit for the club's success to the executive director, Deane W. Moores.

After expressing appreciation of the work of Chief Bullock, who, he said, really started the club, Selectman William C. Adams said that they had been fortunate in their selection of an executive director, as Mr. Moores had worked hard to get the club started. He added, in tribute to Mr. Moore, that the club was now debt free, whereas when Mr. Moore took over the presidency there was a debt of $2,000.

Mr. Moores, in turn, expressed his appreciation of the wonderful (Continued on Page 7)

Perham Chairman Of Committee on Auto Mechanics

Charles B. Perham, head of Charles B. Perham, Inc., 295 Broadway, has been appointed by Colonel Ralph M. Smith, state director of selective service, chairman of the local Automotive Maintenance Manpower Committee. Serving on the committee with him are Albert Thibault and Clifford Miller.

The purpose of the committee is to so distribute auto mechanics that repair work on automobiles and trucks essential to transportation can be done in each area. The committee will act as the representative of the automotive industry in Arlington, and all cases of draft deferment, negotiated transfer and releases from the armed services, involving automotive maintenance manpower are to be brought to its attention.

Unless immediate steps are taken it is feared that the automotive transport system may collapse in the near future. This danger arises because practically no new trucks, cars or buses have been released for civilian use during the past two years and because 47% of the skilled mechanics have been lost since 1941. The old equipment needs more repairs and there are fewer mechanics to make those repairs.

Miss Betty Aubrey of 13 Marathon street was one of the girls modelling the "Flight Fashion—Ready for Action" coiffure at the cosmetologists' convention at the Hotel Statler this week.

Lieut. and Mrs. Paul Vonck and family are now residents of East Williston, Long Island. Their street address is 483 Roslyn road.

Local Camp Fire Girls Join National Campaign

The Arlington Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds are joining their national organization in a campaign to buy and sell $110,000 worth of war bonds, their goal in the Fourth War Loan drive, so that they may present the army with an ambulance plane on their birthday, March 17.

The plane to be purchased is a C-53. It carries from 15 to 20 liters, with a nurse, a staff sergeant and, when necessary, a surgeon attending. This medical staff is equipped with a complete field pack containing blood plasma, medicine, narcotics and bandages.

The two-fold aim of the Pledge-A-Plane Campaign, where all bonds are being purchased in the name of the national organization, Camp Fire Girls, Inc., is to save the lives of fighting men and to establish funds so that the Camp Fire program may be extended to more girls in the future.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read on Sunday, January 30, 1944, in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches.

The Golden Text, "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God," is from I John 4:7. Other Bible citations include, "Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbor, and not suffer sin upon him. Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself: I am the Lord" (Leviticus 19:17,18).

The Lesson-Sermon includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, "At all times and under all circumstances, overcome evil with good. Know thyself, and God will supply the wisdom and the occasion for a victory over evil. The cement of a higher humanity will unite all interests in the one divinity" (p. 571).

I've pretty near taken up all the space on this letter so I'll say good bye for now and get this letter on its way.

January 1, 1944

Dear Ma,

Here's a few lines before I crawl in bed. I've had a busy day and I'm going to bed early. I've worked steady from 8 a. m. till now, 8 p. m. I put in a couple of hours on a clean up detail this morning and after that I worked on my own stuff. All I made today was a chair and a frame for an insect netting to cover my bunk. (Just now we have a program coming in from Boston on the radio. They have a New Year's eve program on and they have the famous bands from all over the country coming in one after the other.)

To get back to my construction now. I made the chair out of a discarded cot. Neither this or the frame took very long to make but I had to go out and hunt up all my material so that's what took so long. When I started out all I was looking for was some clamps and wood for the frame but I found a fairly clean cot and right away I decided I needed a folding chair so I picked the cot up and brought it along. I made quite a collection today. I picked up the cot and frame material which I used. I picked up a canvas case which I can use for a gun case for my carbine. I found a knife sheath which needs to be sewed together again. I found a knife about a week ago that I'm going to repair the handle on so I have another hunting knife and sheath to my collection. I have three now. I picked up quite a few things that I have no use for now but I couldn't leave them behind. I

This farm boy stopped bullets intended for you . . .

JOE MARTINEZ, Colorado farm boy, his battalion bogged down under withering fire from Jap positions on Attu, arose alone and advanced into a hail of bullets to clean out trench after trench so his battalion could advance. He died with his rifle at his shoulder, pumping lead into the enemy, while his mates were able to move up behind him and successfully take the pass. For this Joe Martinez has been posthumously awarded the Nation's highest military honor. Let every man who was once a farm boy himself buy an extra War Bond in Joe's honor . . . for Joe took the bullets aimed at the heart of America!

The 4th WAR LOAN is your opportunity to do something about it!

It's Time to Take the Offensive. Your government has the men it needs to do the job in the front lines—great men all! But it doesn't have the money it needs, by a long way. That's your job! And the immediate task is the Fourth War Loan—Your chance to take the offensive not only in support of the men who are fighting and dying for you and your loved ones, but also in support of your own future!

What are you going to do about a wornout tractor, about repairing fences and buildings, about replacing depreciated machinery and equipment? Will you be ready with money in the bank when these things are needed?

You will if you take the offensive now! Put every extra dollar into U. S. War Bonds—the best form of financial reserve ever offered you. Think! You are asked to make a sound and prudent investment—not a sacrifice!

When Your Boy Comes Home

Will your boy come back to a farm or ranch with no financial reserves, no future? Or will you greet him at the gate with a bundle of War Savings Bonds—for working capital, new machinery, better buildings? And if your children are going to college, why not be sure they get there by buying today the Bonds that will pay the cost.

No need, really, to tell an up-to-date farmer or rancher what he needs financial reserves for. You know more reasons than anyone else can enumerate for setting aside extra dollars to meet the future. Now is your chance to do it . . . and help fight the war, too!

Go on the offensive! Buy all the Bonds you can—today!

got a door return spring, some foot locker handles, a few hinges, some leather strapping and a few other things. I usually find use for most of the stuff or I trade it off so I bring back whatever I find. The rarest thing I saw today was a real honest-to-goodness egg shell. Joe.

Jan. 7, 1944

Dear Ma,

I'm off to a fairly early start this evening, it's about 8 p. m. now. I haven't any news but I might get a fair-sized letter out.

I've received four Advocates to date. The latest issue was November 25th. I believe that it is the most up-to-date paper on the island. You would be surprised at how many have read them so far. Some of the fellows were from around Boston but others were from all over the country. They didn't care where the paper came from just so long as they could read something from about the States. Everybody thanks you for sending them. I believe you asked me in one of your latest letters whether I wanted a Boston paper. One of the fellows here is supposed to have the Post sent to him so I'll just hope that his come through. So far he hasn't received any and they were supposed to start when he left the States in October. Maybe some day they'll catch up to us.

I've added to my collection the last few days. The most important thing was a mattress. I got it off a sailor that had an extra one. (The Navy boys all have them.) I'm pretty lucky because we haven't any available for issue or sale. As far as I know there are only two in this whole company. I can really enjoy my bunk now. I got a piece of steel wool off a small ship I was unloading the night before last. This is a sort of rare item around here. I have it locked up in my bag so it won't get lost, strayed or stolen.

There was just a debate going on as to what day and date it was and I had to leave the tent and go to the day room. I told them to blink the light three times when they came to an agreement. They blinked the light just as I sat down so I came back. I no sooner started to write about it when one of the fellows started squawking that it was only Thursday, the 6th, so I had to go over and show him on paper by the shifts we've worked what day it is. I finally got him convinced without a doubt what day it was and I came back and back to my writing. Just now he piped up with that at least it is Thursday the 6th in the States right now.

Well, I have to close and take a walk. "Lightning" still thinks that it's Thursday or at least he won't keep quiet and I haven't any chloroform so I'll leave and hope he quits pretty soon. Bye for now.

stressed repeatedly the importance of having War Bonds issued by a local bank, as far as possible, so that Arlington may be given the credit and thereby reach its quota that much sooner.

Highlighting this week's activities was the presentation of a floral tribute, on the stage of the RKO Theatre in Boston, to Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield, chairman of the local women's division. Mrs. Mansfield was cited by the State Chairman of the women's division for outstanding service. This was the second award of its kind made to a Massachusetts woman.

Another important meeting of the Arlington War Finance Committee and the canvassing committee will be held tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank.

Meanwhile, anyone wishing assignment to his or her own precinct as a worker is urged to call at the local headquarters in the Arlington News office.

H. S. LOSES HARD-FOUGHT GAME TO MELROSE, 6-4

Dave Sheehan's Wrenched Leg and Penalty for Malone Give Victory to Opponents in Last Minutes of Game.

The High School hockey team put up a hard fight against Melrose last Saturday night at the Boston Garden and lost it in the last two minutes of play when Melrose scored two goals, breaking a 4-4 tie and bringing the game to a close with the score of 6-4.

The team had a double handicap. Defenseman Dave Sheehan wrenched his leg early in the game and was out for the rest of it, while Malone, the team's chief scorer in the two previous games, spent the last two minutes while Melrose scored in the penalty box.

Melrose made the first goal of the game. Colley, Malone, assisting, tied it up, but before the end of the first period Melrose had scored again. Fife at the beginning of the second, put the puck in unassisted and made the score 2-2. Melrose scored again before the end of the second, and still again at the beginning of the third—4-2 in favor of Melrose. Two Arlington goals—Colley, with Bryne assisting, and Malone, with Colley assisting, made the 4-4 tie. The summary:

Melrose High—(6)—G. Healy; rd. Forbes; ld. Allen; c. Priestly; rw. Brennan; lw. Lloyd.

Arlington High—(4)—G. Montoui; rd. Emmons; ld. Sheehan; c. Fife; rw. Colley; lw. Malone.

Melrose alternates—Troy, MacDonald, Balfour.

Arlington alternates—Bryne, Wells, Everett, Harden.

First Period—Melrose, Brennan, unassisted, 2:0; Arlington, Colley (Malone), 3:04; Melrose, Brennan, unassisted, 5:21. Penalty—Sheehan, leg check.

Second Period—Arlington, Fife unassisted, 3:19; Melrose, Lloyd (Priestly), 9:30. Penalty—Allen, tripping.

unit, the center unit and the High School unit, chartered by Mrs. John H. Gutteridge, did this work. They are: Mrs. Hildreth, Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. Markley, Miss Damon, Mrs. Field, Mrs. Croft, Mrs. Cheney and Mrs. Lorentz. From the mobile unit there were Mrs. Crosby, Mrs. Fitch and Mrs. Wylie.

Mrs. Kingman opened the afternoon session with a prayer for those in the service and at home. There was a "good sing" led by Mrs. Norman Griffin with Mrs. Frank Harwood at the piano in place of Mrs. Shute. Mrs. Bowen brought greetings from Mrs. Grady D. Feagan, immediate past president. She then presented Rev. Walton E. Cole. His subject was "Religion in the Home and Its Influence on Our Boys in the Service." Those who left early because "I get my religion in the church," really missed a splendid inspirational talk. He did not dwell on religion but showed how, by living it, we can meet all problems and surmount all sorrows. He said that religion really comes from the Home through the Church and into the World. He spoke of the courage of the average American parents in these trying times and urged the home front to keep things just as they were when the boys left. He said the overtime of the hundreds of letters he has had from those in the armed services is "don't change anything" and the gift most wanted is "snaps from home".

This report would not be complete without mentioning the exhibits. That of the American Home Committee under the direction of Mrs. David T. Starkey and Mrs. Roy McCormack in the rear of the hall was especially interesting, since it showed the work being done by club members of the present day. Beautiful bedspreads, table-cloths and needlepoint cushions and foot-stools were on display. The exhibitors were Mrs. Norman Griffin, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Horn, Mrs. Raymond Warren, Mrs. Charles Mellen, Mrs. Frederick Bowen, Mrs. Guy Hamilton, Mrs. Walter Fer-moyle, Mrs. Roy McCormack, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. James Flynn, Mrs. John Gunn and Mrs. David Starkey. Especially interesting was the Italian cut work of Mrs. Spaulding.

At the front of the hall was the Art display of antiques. A candlestick from her grandfather's pew in the Old North Church was displayed by Mrs. Calvin Cook. Others who displayed were Mrs. Ezekiel Pratt, Mrs. C. W. Patriquin, Mrs. A. W. Glines, Mrs. A. W. Swensen, Mrs. James Wood, Mrs. Edwin Tarbox, Mrs. Norman Griffin, Mrs. Daniel Wade, Mrs. Preston Ware, Mrs. Guy Hamilton, Mrs. Charles Avakian, Mrs. Leroy Shaw, Mrs. Rimbach and Mrs. Stanley Kihgman. Assisting Mrs. Shaw with this exhibit were Mrs. Leroy Bezanon, Mrs. Harold Tenney, Mrs. Daniel Wade and Mrs. Charles Avakian.

In the outer hall there was a display of work being done by the war service committee, presided over by Mrs. Harold T. Summers. Mrs. Rexford James and Mrs. Terry Shuman were in charge of the sale of war stamps and bonds which made a splendid showing.

The whole affair was a great credit to Mrs. Bowen and her able committee, whose members are: Mrs. M. H. Rood, Mrs. R. V. McCormack, Mrs. H. Benner, Mrs. M. R. Des Marais, Mrs. E. B. Noyes, Mrs. D. T. Starkey, Mrs. E. Burke, Mrs. C. G. Mellen, and Mrs. J. Gunn.

Other chairmen of committees assisting were Mrs. L. G. Shaw, Mrs. James J. Flynn and Mrs. Richard S. Low. Mrs. Bruce I. Lawley, assisted by Mrs. Harold Clare, who also was in charge of guest tickets, had charge of luncheon tickets.

Tells Varia Members

Of Boys' Club Work

The Varia Study Club met at the home of Mrs. T. E. Lannefeld, 247 Wachusett avenue, Monday evening. Mrs. Parker Wood, the president, called a short business meeting and announced that at the next meeting she would like suggestions from the members as to what charities the Club would like to help this year. Mrs. Cornelius Collins introduced A. Henry Ottosen, principal of Junior High West, whose subject was the Boys' Club. Mr. Ottosen told of the big need the boys had for companionship in clean active sports, and how the club was trying to fill that need. Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour.

State Guard Seeks Men To Replace Draftees

Owing to the fact that great numbers of State Guardsmen have recently been inducted into the Federal Armed Forces, home defense units have been thinned down considerably. In this connection Brig. Gen. William J. Kerville, the Adjutant General of the Commonwealth, said this recently:

"More men, especially between the ages of 38 and 50, are needed by the State Guard to fill the ranks thinned by the present heavy drafting of fathers. In addition, the creation of new units and the increase in the authorized strength the 1st, 2d and 3d Motor Squadrons, as provided in the reorganization of the State Guard last December, create additional openings for older men who want to volunteer part of their leisure time to the war effort."

A regimental officers' meeting took place at the Regimental Headquarters at the Charlestown Armory last Thursday evening, January 20. Among those present were Capt. Frederick L. Reynolds, 1st Lt. George H. Birtwell and 2nd Lt. Laurence P. Arthur.

A meeting of the non-commissioned officers' school of the whole Regiment was held the same night. Capt. Harold B. Lawler, Regimental Adjutant, was in charge.

The Arlington Company's new Range Officer is Lt. H. A. Dellicker of the Winchester Company.

Hospital Cottages Head Speaks at Kiwanis Meeting

Mark L. Ball, Superintendent of the Hospital Cottages for Children, Baldwinville, was the guest speaker at the weekly meeting of the Arlington Kiwanis Club that was held last Thursday in the Old Mill. Mr. Ball traced the history and development of the Hospital Cottages which includes not only the hospital care of the children but at the same time gives special schooling for handicapped patients.

ARLINGTON WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. Ellsworth G. Hathaway, chairman of the Motion Picture Committee of the Arlington Woman's Club, presents Earl L. Hilfiker with his motion picture, "Rainbow's End", at the regular meeting on February 3rd at 2 p. m. The picture shows beavers, young deer and many other animals. The committee feels it is a much better picture than the one scheduled.

Members of the club are reminded that Mrs. Carl Markley and her committee will be on hand to sell United States War Bonds and Stamps for which the club will have credit toward an ambulance plane to be named for the Federation.

FATHERS OF MARINES

The next meeting of the Fathers of Marines will be held at Chestnut Hall, Chestnut street, at 3:00 p. m., Sunday. Charter membership will close at this meeting.

Arlington Allied War Relief Committee

In spite of the fact that the women of St. John's Church put on a successful supper at the church on Saturday of last week, the Women's Guild and others connected with the church contributed so generously to the food table in their charge at the Monday meeting of the Arlington Allied War Relief Committee, in the vestry of the Orthodox Congregational Church, that the sum of $55.50 was realized. The table was in charge of Mrs. William Colvinick, Mrs. Wilbur Hutchins, Mrs. James Walker and Mrs. Arthur Barnes.

Other money contributions on that day were $3.25 for the yarn; $6.71 realized at the gift table; $4.10 from the tea served at 3:30 p. m., which is a feature of every meeting. A collection for the "March of Dimes" amounted to $12.00.

There was a large sale of bonds and stamps, which totaled $5,410 at the close of the afternoon. Mrs. Morton C. Bradley has this department of the Allies work in charge, which entails no little work in seeing that the bonds purchased are correct in every detail, and it often requires more than one trip to the bank to complete the transaction.

The luncheon served at noon was an especially appetizing one, consisting of Spanish rice, carrot, celery and pineapple salad, lemon-snow pudding with custard sauce, tea and coffee. The regular committee which includes Mrs. Gladys Fitch, Mesdames Arthur Noble, Walter Swensen, E. Maude Charlton, and Richard Linley, served ninety-two. This luncheon netted $12.37.

The attendance for the day was 142. Some came to return finished work, others to take work home, and still others who are not able to give a full day's work, which is from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., to work as long as they could.

Miss Marshall brought to the rooms two finished nightgowns; Mrs. Wm. Simpson's group, two pairs of pants, four pinafores, three layettes, two pairs booties, one dress and panties, three skirts, two kimonos and one slip; Mrs. M. Black, four blankets; Miss Payn-Sills, fifteen articles; the Brantwood road group, two dresses, four skirts, four pants, five babies' dresses, three kimonos, two bonnets, five pairs booties, and one bunting; Arlington Heights group, ten dresses, one coat, four baby dresses, one pantie set, one pair mittens; Miss Harris, one kimono.

Mrs. Albert Farley has made thirty of those handkerchiefs for our fighting men. Mrs. Willard D. Wallace has finished her thirty-eighth baby's blanket.

During the business session the chairman, Mrs. Harold B. Wood, announced the gift of $50.00 from the Arlington Woman's Club to the Arlington Allied War Relief Committee.

A beautifully crocheted afghan, that had been made by a group of ladies and assembled by Mrs. William J. Sinclair, Jr., and Mrs. William J. Sinclair, who also made many of the squares, was on exhibition at this meeting. It will be disposed of later.

The chairman also announced articles for the gift table from Mrs. William E. Lutz, Mrs. William Israel, Mrs. Ralph Cutter and Mrs. R. E. Howart. Mrs. David Wilcox contributed material for the hospital slippers.

Mrs. Harry Revell received a letter from the Lovell General Hospital, SCSU #1127, John L. Fromer, Major M. C. of the Public Relations Office, thanking her for the hospital slippers made and sent by her to the hospital. Thirty more pairs go to the hospital this week.

At the January 31st meeting the chairman will have as her guest at luncheon, the head of the Netherlands Relief Committee.

The R. D. Lend-a-Hand will have the food table.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

The O-ki-yai-mi Camp Fire Girls are gathering stamps and bonds to buy an army ambulance plane. Enthusiasm ran high when ten of the group gathered at Boston Headquarters to put on a demonstration for the Guardians Association of Greater Boston last Saturday. Those taking part were Barbara Strong, Barbara Colton, Virginia Todd, Beverly Smith, Inez Higgins, Bessie May Webb, Mary Stahl, Irene Rivers, Inger Johnson, and Jean Davis. The girls were costumed to represent ways in which money has been earned to buy bonds.

Delicious refreshments were served at the conclusion of a very instructive meeting. Two bluebird leaders from Arlington, Mrs. Douglas Forbes and Mrs. Wesley McSorley, Jr., were in charge of the hostesses. Others attending from Arlington were Mesdames Rood, Helmann and Eldred F. Cheney.

Several balls of tinfoil, wire coat hangers and four thousand cancelled postage stamps were presented as part payment on a bond for Arlington.

The O-ki-yai-mi group will hold a Mother and Daughter tea early next month. They are also selling doughnuts as a means of raising money for the plane project.

BAPTIST MEN'S CLASS

The Father and Son Day held last Sunday at the First Baptist Church Men's Class was an outstanding occasion, with a group of about 300 men and boys present. "Gil" Dodds, America's number one track star and divinity student at Gordon College of Theology and Missions, addressed the class. In his talk entitled "An Athlete's Preparation for the Race", he compared running to living the Christian life in the fact that there must be timing, weights carried and obstacles overcome in both cases. During his talk he exhibited a 5-ounce shoe given to him by Gunder Haag, the noted Swedish runner. The mate to this shoe which is believed to be the world's lightest racing shoe, was presented by Haag to Gregory Rice, another racer. Many of the men and boys were interested to note that a Swedish prayer was inscribed on this shoe. Mr. Dodds concluded his talk with the poem entitled "Playing the Game."

President Wallace Gorton presented the speaker with a picture taken by Warren Patriquin, class photographer, just at the turn of the previous night's race when Gil was coming into the lead to go on to victory.

Next Sunday Rev. Nathan W. Wood will continue his talk on the subject, "Paul's Return to Jerusalem." The devotional opening of the class will be in charge of Clarence R. Stewart.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Members of the Arlington Historical Society gathered in the vestry of the Unitarian Church Tuesday evening for their regular meeting. Rev. Laurence L. Barber, president, presided and introduced the speaker of the evening, Miss Edith N. Winn.

Miss Winn whose paper was based on the Peace Jubilee of 1869, presented a most remarkable paper in a most remarkable manner. This is the 75th anniversary of the event. One of the members of the audience, James O. Holt, had attended the function as a small boy. It is of interest that Miss Winn quoted several items from the Arlington Advocate of the year 1872. Miss Winn interspersed her facts with popular music of that period. The audience joined in singing some of the songs. Miss Hazel Coyle entertained with appropriate selections on the piano and other selections were played on the victrola to illustrate music sung at that time.

Republican Women Hear Talk on Railroads at War

American Legion Hall was filled yesterday afternoon for the meeting of the Arlington Women's Republican Club, which was held there with the president, Miss Lucinda M. Higgins, in the chair.

An enjoyable and enlightening talk was given by William A. Wheeler, general representative of the Boston & Maine and Maine Central Railroads, on "Railroads at War". He stated that our New England railroad was the first to operate a moving vehicle at the rate of 60 miles per hour. This was from Boston to Lawrence. He also stated that war transportation now has priority.

"They are moving 11 million men constantly at the rate of two million a month," he said. "A freight train starts a trip on an average of every 4 seconds, and a troop train leaves for a destination on an average of every six minutes."

He closed by telling his attentive audience that without the railroads we would have lost the war before we started. The railroads are also a public necessity for the general welfare, said Mr. Wheeler. A social hour with refreshments followed.

HEIGHTS STUDY CLUB

The Arlington Heights Study Club held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Bertram Dillin on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. Alfred Patterson assisted Mrs. Dillin as hostess.

JOIN THE FIGHT

You have until the end of the month to join in the fight against infantile paralysis. Bill Cunningham who is giving his help in the fight, makes this vital appeal—

"This challenged nation of ours," he says, "is fighting two wars, and, as vital, as mammoth and as tragic as it is, the one against the Axis is the simpler. That one's a matter of straight shot and shell. We know who the enemy is, where he is and what it takes to exterminate him. Winning that one is a physical matter of closing with the beast, grappling with him and beating the life out of him.

"That, we're doing, and although the struggle is terrific, victory will be the end of it. To that extent, the fight is temporary.

"The other war isn't. While it lacks the thrills, the glamour, the action of the fight with guns and ships and planes, over the run of the years, it's equally deadly, and, in one way or another, perhaps equally expensive. That's the permanent, the never ending, fight against disease, and, especially against the insidious, elusive and singularly merciless killer and crippler of children—Infantile Paralysis.

"It's a terrible, a skulking, almost, it seems, a gloating, enemy hard to fight, because, unlike men and ships, its form isn't known, its bases have never been located and its approach can't be detected. No home, no child, no community is immune.

Yet the slow, hard fight is on. Progress is being made, and this enemy, like the other will eventually be taken. The weapon is science; the strategy relentless research, and rigid control; the home front, that must loyally and unflinchingly back this attack, too—you and me. This fight is being waged for your home and mine, your kids and mine, your neighbor's kids, and mine. None is safe until it's won.

"And to carry this bitter battle, men and women of good will, and of all creeds, kinds and personal beliefs have banded themselves together in voluntary, unpaid, humanitarian service to assist The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis until American childhood can be freed from the threat of this insidious monster.

"We ask you to join us.

"There's no particular formality involved. We have no rosettes to hang on you, no scrolls to award you. In fact, you'll even have to take most of your thanks from the mere knowledge that somewhere in this land, you've helped rekindle the light of hope in some wan little face you'll probably never see.

"You can join us by making a financial contribution, large or small, as your means and your desire will allow. Large donations are acceptable, but, as a matter of fact, if everybody who reads this will mail us only a dollar, or will give a dollar to the Fund drive soon to start in your town, we'll be able to fight the beast in this district for at least another year.

In restaurants, drug stores and other public places in your locality, you'll find coin collection boxes devoted to this drive. You may be solicited in your movies, or by postmen, firemen or policemen, who come to your door. Give them a dollar, or, at least, your spare change.

"And if none of these reaches you, or if it seems more convenient, simply mail your dollar to: John J. Hagerty, State Chairman of the Committee for Infantile Paralysis, P. O. Box 3073, Boston (6) Mass., or you can send it to me, Bill Cunningham, Parker House, Boston, Massachusetts."

GET THE BOOKS OUT

"Get the Books Out" is the slogan of the Massachusetts Victory Book Committee. Our servicemen need books—biography, travel, philosophy, science, religion, but especially good fiction: mysteries, Westerns, and comics.

The Coast Guardsmen, out for a week at a time patrolling our New England coast in winter, want good books to read. The boys in the airplane spotting units, stationed miles from nowhere with nothing to do when off duty, want good books to read.

The crews of freighters and tankers that carry the men and materials of war to Murmansk or Iran or the South Pacific need reading matter desperately.

The days are dreadfully long for a boy recuperating in a military hospital. A few good books help a lot.

Arlington people have given many books but there must be more that they can give. Those twenty-five cent pocket size paper bound detective, and other, stories are fine for the men in the service. And the men are "nuts" about comics.

Books may be left at the Robbins Library or at the Information Center of the Committee on Public Safety in the Old Town Hall. This is open Mondays through Thursdays from half past one to five. A call to Arlington 3220 will bring someone to pick up your books if you can't carry them to the center yourself.

Masquerade.—About 30 of the friends of Mr. G. P. Pierce, rallied at his home on Charlestown street, last Monday evening and gave him a surprise. They all had a happy time.

S. S. Concerts.—Last Sunday evening at the Universalist Church, there was an interesting Sunday School concert conducted by the Superintendent, Mr. Henry Swan. There was singing by the scholars, and short addresses.

At the Baptist Church there were addresses by Rev. Mr. Harris and Mr. Corey, the Superintendent, a poem by Mr. Peabody, and singing by the children and the choir, under the direction of the chorister, Mr. Warren Rawson.

Runaway.—Last Saturday Master Roland Hobbs and his sister were taking a sleigh ride when their horse ran away with them. The girl became frightened, and in spite of her brother's protests, jumped out. Roland held on, however, and finally ran the horse into a barn and stopped him. His coolness was warmly commended by those who witnessed it.

"Arlington Welcomes Her Boys" is the motto painted in large letters on the bulletin board at the junction of Mass. avenue and Pleasant street. The welcome is in our hearts as surely as it is voiced on the board.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Lane of Norfolk, Va., and son, Arthur J., Jr., are the guests of Mrs. Lane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Grannan, of 318 Mass. avenue.

Tuesday evening in their beautiful and spacious home at 44 Janney street, Mr. and Mrs. George Irving Doe celebrated the 55th anniversary of their wedding. The anniversary was not marked with any formal reception. The immediate family which includes the Robert C. Cliffords, Levi M. Dolloffs, the H. P. Worthleys, the John S. Meserve, Wm. P. Nightingale and H. S. Giles families, were the only ones present.

Miss Bessie Bartlett is passing the winter in the south. At present she is at St. Petersburg, Florida, and is living with Mrs. Harry Leeds, formerly of Arlington, who has help and cooperation he had received from the Board of Directors. The Boston Council of Social Agencies was represented by C. T. Gilmore, associate director. Mr. Gilmore indicted the parents. It is they, he said, who are delinquent, not the children.

Fighting Delinquency Developed by Sports

Naming leading heroes from Con-ly Kelly on, the guest speaker, Bill Cunningham, said that they illustrated the value of sports training; every one of them was an athlete. Sports, he continued, have developed our boys. They have learned team work, they are able to take orders. The boys that are now doing the fighting are the boys whose equipment for that fighting has been developed by sports. He had no doubt at the beginning of the war, he said, that these boys would fight.

The home front, he emphasized, must not "drop the ball," the way we dropped it after the last war. Winning a war is simple mechanics, a matter of production. It is far harder to learn how to get along with people for peace in the future. "Such work as the Boys' Club is the most intelligent work that can be done," he concluded.

After the benediction had been pronounced by Rev. John Nicol Mark, minister of the First Parish Church, the guests were given an opportunity to inspect the clubhouse.

Besides Mr. Moore the officers of the club are: Roscoe O. Elliott, vice, president; A. Henry Ottoson, Treasurer; Albert H. Perkins, secretary; Deane W. Moore, executive director; Executive Committee—William C. Adams, Archie F. Bullock, Harold A. Cahall, Martin R. Durkin, Robert L. Moore, A. Henry Ottoson, Albert H. Perkins, Maurice Sandler, Roscoe O. Elliott.

Board of Directors—William C. Adams, Nils G. Anderson, Paul A. Anderson, Mrs. James A. Bailey, Arthur Birch, Michael A. Broderick, Archie F. Bullock, Ralph F. Burkard, Harold A. Cahall, Miss Anna B. Callahan, Dr. P. A. Campobasso, Martin R. Durkin, Roscoe O. Elliott, Milton Estabrook, Rev. Matthew J. Flaherty, Miss Edith M. Fox, John G. Gill, George H. Greim, Benjamin F. Hickey, Arthur J. Truworthy, Russell P. Wise.

The Dedication Committee included: Mr. Scanlan, chairman; Archie F. Bullock, and Benjamin F. Hickey.

Reception Committee—Roscoe O. Elliott, chairman; A. Henry Ottoson, Harold A. Cahall, Martin R. Durkin, Russell P. Wise.

IT'S IN THE AIR. You can feel it, every time the Axis is struck. This is the climax year, the year of decision.

In history, 1944 will be the big year of the war—every stroke for victory counts more now. That's why it's vitally important for every American to beat his post, doing his part right now.

You, personally, have an important job in winning the war—buying War Bonds. It's not glamorous—no, not even a sacrifice, really, because you are only lending your money, to be returned with interest. But it is essential to complete victory.

Your part in this year of decision is at least one extra $100 Bond, above your regular Bond buying. That is your minimum individual quota. But don't stop there. Remember wars are won only by all-out effort. So buy $200, $300, $500 worth—buy more than you can afford. And buy your Bonds where you work—at the plant or at the office.

Your country is counting on you—let's make the year of decision OUR year!

This sticker in your window means you have bought 4th War Loan securities.

Let's All BACK THE ATTACK!

Cub Pack 86

The regular monthly meeting of Cub Pack 86 was held last Friday evening at the Peirce School with some 125 boys, parents, and friends of the pack in attendance.

The program started at 7:45, with the boys marching into the auditorium to the martial strains of "All Hail to Eighty-Six," the official pack song, played by the Webelo Band. Cub Richard O'Brien of Den 10 led the Salute to the Flag. Assistant Cubmaster Harold J. O'Brien then introduced Billy Mills, former Holy Cross baseball captain, who was recently signed to play with the Philadelphia Athletics for the coming season.

Cubmaster Edward E. W. Okerlund then awarded achievement badges to the following boys: Wolf, Norman Carlson; Wolf and Gold Arrow, Vincent Bates, G. Wayne MacLeod, Robert Casalone, Charles Breen; Wolf Gold Arrow, Charles R. Francis, Robert DeMello; Bear, Richard Carlson, Stanton Waite; Bear and Gold Arrow, William Dickson; Lion with Gold Arrow, Manuel DeMello; Lion, Ronald Wilson; Webelo, Vaughn Kasabian.

The Pack 86 Glee Club, comprising some 25 boys, under direction of Mrs. Charles Frederick, den mother of Den 6, rendered a number of selections.

In an impressive candlelight ceremony five former Cubs were inducted into Troop 86, having passed their Tenderfoot requirements. As each boy repeated one of the 12 Scout laws, he lit a candle, after which he was presented with his Tenderfoot badge and formally welcomed into the troop by Scoutmaster Paul E. Wilson. The boys were Ronald Wilson, Leslie Frederick, John Hogan, Edward Hanlon and Robert MacIntosh.

Then followed a number of selections by the Webelo Band, including a guitar specialty by Cub Alan Cotton.

Magician Walter Taylor of Cypress road then mystified the boys with a variety of card, rope and escape tricks, while his assistant, Leo Austin, sang a variety of novelty songs. The two made a big hit. The meeting closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Troop 41

Thirteen Scouts and three adult leaders of Troop 41 enjoyed a trip to the Sportsman's Show in Boston last week.

TRINITY MEN'S CLASS

Chaplain George Wesley Turner, who addressed the members of the Adelphian Bible Class, at Trinity Baptist Church on Sunday, January 16, has accepted an invitation to return as guest speaker for next Sunday's meeting. Chaplain Turner, whose home is in Lubbock, Texas, is attending the Harvard School for Chaplains of the U. S. Army. He will be the personal guest of Deacon Charles Hall, who has made the arrangements for both of these very welcome visits to the Men's Class of Trinity.

Town Topics

The Business Girls' Clubs of the Boston Y.W.C.A. opened their winter season with a banquet and evening program at 140 Clarendon street, last Wednesday night. Ruth Crimmins of 232 Highland avenue, was chairman of the Entertainment Committee.

In Boston University's second winter wartime Commencement held Saturday in the University's Charles Hayden Memorial, among the approximately 100 students who were candidates for degrees were the following: Catherine Rita Iaconis, 86 Egerton road, candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the College of Liberal Arts; Marion Sutherland Tait of Arlington, candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the College of Liberal Arts, with honor; Clair Elmsere Turner, A.B., A.M., D.P.H., 19 Village lane, candidate for the degree of Master of Education at the School of Education.

Mrs. Robert E. LaPorte, local real estate broker of 48 Chester street, has been admitted to the Beth Israel Hospital for surgery. The operation is scheduled for Monday of this week and it is expected that she will be at home within a week. Mrs. LaPorte has been giving her services as a Nurses Aide and hopes to continue as soon as her condition permits.

Mrs. Helen Gurlik, 42 Dudley street, owner of Eva's Beauty Shop, Somerville, has flown to Florida for a two weeks' vacation.

THE FARMER vs. OLD MAN WINTER

It's 5 a. m. of a snowy, bitter cold Winter morning. Common or garden variety civilians like you, and me are still asleep; and when we waken later to the prospect of car chains and galoshes, we'll think we have it tough.

At 5 a. m., the milk farmer is shoveling a path to the barn by the light of a lantern. Huge drifts have blown against the barn doors; he must shovel those, too. The cows must be milked and fed. And getting the milk to the pasteurization plant (and then to you) presents still more problems. Roads are choked with snow; even car chains prove ineffectual. Bus service is crippled. Trains run late. But the milk always gets there.

Hard enough in normal times, the milk farmer's job today is doubly hard. Overworked and underpaid, he's waging a one-man war against two tough adversaries: Old Man Winter and wartime help shortages. If he can fight that battle and win, surely we can help by sharing fairly the milk he is able to produce.
